Craft Cocktails

The Arcadian	10.5
Boozy, strong whiskey with a nice blood orange finish. Primary Spirit: Cedar Ridge Malted Rye
The Septimus	11.5
Complex & herbal with a bit of sweetness. Primary Spirit: St. Georges Terrier Gin
Spring Storm	8
Evokes the feel just after the passing of a spring storm. Earthy & floral with a creamy egg white* texture. Primary Spirit: Letherbee Gin & Bushmills Irish Whiskey; Glass: Coupe
Red Dawn	10
A blood orange and burnt rosemary shrub provides the heart of this drink Great drink to greet the morning with (cocktails were originally a morning drink!) Primary Spirit: C&K Immature Brandy; Glass: Coupe
Rose Zephyr	9.5
Floral, a little sweet, and deceptive in its gentle flavor for the strength of spirits. Primary Spirit: Plymouth Gin; Glass: Collins
I Am Not A Mule	9
Smooth & sweet with a hint of spice from sassafras aged Arcadian Hellfire Bitters; topped with ginger beer Primary Spirit: C&K Immature Brandy; Glass: Rocks
Pre-Prohibition Martini	10
This martini uses what once would have been a standard amount of vermouth (2:1 Gin to Vermouth ratio). Lillet Blanc is standard, order it dry with Vya White, or extra dry to cut the vermouth for a more modern take. Primary Spirit: Letherbee Gin (or a London Dry if Letherbee is unavailable); Glass: Coupe
Mezcal Matdor	8.5
A mezcal twist on the classic Matador, made with fresh pineapple, lime, and a dash of Arcadia Hellfire Bitters Primary Spirit: Exotico Blanco Tequila & Vida Mezcal; Glass: Rocks
Manhattan	9.5
A drink corrupted into a fruity mess during the latter half of the 20th century, returned to its roots: whiskey, sweet vermouth, and orange bitters Primary Spirit: Eagle Rare, Rittenhouse Rye, or High West Double Rye; Glass: Coupe
Averna Manhattan	9.5
A new twist on the great classic, substituting Averna amaro for vermouth for a drier drink. Primary Spirit: Rittenhouse Rye; Glass: Coupe
Spirit Flights(.5oz samples of each)
Brandy Cedar Ridge Apple, Cedar Ridge Grape, C&K American Craft, & C&K Butchertown Reserve	9.5
Bourbon Eagle Rare, Cedar Ridge, Cedar Ridge Port Cask, & Gifted Horse	9
